One-Page Profile

What people like and admire about me

People like my spontaneity and my honesty, the devotion that I put into every little thing.

I am kind and caring and always have a calm manner.

What's important to me

For me it is very important to give people a positive view of life, which can be even just trying to bring a smile out in the people surrounding me.

I am also a very analytical person and I like to combine my spontaneity and humour with my being decisive and keen towards achieving the goal.

How I like to support / things I can offer

I like to be natural and spontaneous whilst understanding the support that needs to be offered also.

I also try to be present, in the moment, and try to get the most out of each day.

It is important for me to give feelings of security and trust whilst always maintaining a funny and positive atmosphere, working out different approaches to improve the welfare of the client.
